Query: The color of John Wilkes Booth's hair is jet-black.

He stood 5 feet 8 inches (1.73 m) tall, had jet-black hair, and was lean and athletic.

Noted Civil War reporter George Alfred Townsend described him as a "muscular, perfect man" with "curling hair, like a Corinthian capital".

Some critics called Booth "the handsomest man in America" and a "natural genius", and noted his having an "astonishing memory".
